IDENTITY Overview

The IDENTITY project, under the CERV-Town Twinning action, was celebrated in Veria, Greece, on 12–13 October 2024. Hosted by EQUALINE, with participation from Slovenia, Croatia, Spain, and Bulgaria, the event emphasized cultural inclusion, youth dialogue, and civic engagement in Europe.

The 2-day European Unity Fest featured presentations from partner municipalities, thematic panels on diversity and identity, powerful street plays titled Stories from Every Corner, and hands-on cultural showcases that highlighted the richness of each participating region.

Objectives of IDENTITY

- Celebrate European cultural diversity through performance and dialogue.
- Promote youth empowerment and civic awareness.
- Facilitate cross-border cooperation and town twinning.
- Raise visibility of minority voices and underrepresented perspectives.
- Strengthen community belonging and democratic engagement in EU affairs.
